SCHOOL DEAN AND DEPARTMENT HEADS NAMED FOR 1978-79

Three new academic-administrative appointments and four reappointments have been announced for the 1978-79 academic year by President John M. Pfau.

Reappointed for three-year terms were Dean James Crum, School of Natural Sciences and Professor of Chemistry; Associate Professor Kenneth Mantei, Chair, Dept. of Chemistry; Associate Professor Helene Koon, Chair, Dept. of English and Associate Professor William Ackerman, Chair, Dept. of Geography.

Associate Professor Julius Kaplan has been named Chairman of the Department of Art. Dr. Kaplan, who joined the College at the beginning of this academic year, came to CSCSB from a teaching post at UCLA. An art historian, Dr. Kaplan is a graduate of Wesleyan U, and received his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in Art History from Columbia U.

From 1967 to 1969 Dr. Kaplan was in Paris under a Fulbright grant where he did research on Gustave Moreau, which led to his preparing an exhibit on the French painter for the Los Angeles County Art Museum, which subsequently became a traveling exhibit, and the publication of a catalog pertaining to the show. He is currently working on a book on academic art in France, where he hopes to go in the future to continue his research and utilize a grant received from the American Council of Learned Societies.

Professor Gordon Stanton has been appointed Chairman of the Department of Teacher Education. A ten-year veteran of the College, Dr. Stanton currently is Coordinator of the Secondary Education Program and in 1975-76 served as Chairman, Teacher Education Department. He will replace Dr. Elton Thompson who will return to full-time teaching next year.

COLLEGE WILL BE CLOSED ON WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

Next Monday, February 20, is the official date set aside for observance of Washington's Birthday.

The College will be closed that day, including the Library.

Although his birthday is being celebrated on February 20, the first president of the United States was born on February 22, 1732.

Unprecedented Interest COLLEGE SCHEDULES FOUR LECTURES BY DR. ROBERT SMITH ON TUTANKHAMUN

A fervor of interest in King Tutankhamun, equal to that demonstrated by the discovery of his tomb in 1922, has been generated by the traveling exhibit currently in Los Angeles which displays 55 treasures from his tomb.

KING TUT LECTURES

As a result of the public expression of interest in the young Egyptian king, the College has asked Dr. Robert Smith, Professor of History, to do four illustrated lectures, President John M. Pfau has announced.

In the four identical presentations, Dr. Smith will deal with the life and times of Tutankhamun, as seen from the historical perspective. The historian will base his talks upon slides and information collected during 30 years of teaching and his insatiable interest in this era of the world's civilization.

The lectures are scheduled for Thursday, March 16, Friday, March 17, Monday, March 20 and Tuesday, March 21. The last lecture will be at 3 p.m. The others at 8 p.m. All will be in the Recital Hall of the Creative Arts Building.

An admission fee of $1 will be charged for both the campus community and the public. Tickets may be purchased, by mail or in person, from the Music/Theatre Arts Office beginning Tuesday, February 21.

RARE COLLECTION OF EGYPTIAN ARTIFACTS TO BE IN LIBRARY

A rare collection of never-before-shown Egyptian artifacts dating from 3,500 B.C. through the times of King Tutankhamun up to 100 B.C. will be on display in the College Library beginning March 5 and continuing through March 31.

The exhibit is being brought to the College from a private collection in the area. According to the collector, "the 105 items included in the exhibit provide a broad picture of ancient Egyptian life. In contrast the treasures from Tutankhamun's tomb on display in the Los Angeles County Museum represent a very small section of ancient Egypt and all the treasures are of royalty only."

The items to be exhibited are divided into a variety of categories including personal adornment, cosmetics, musical instruments, religious figures, mummified pieces and objects of personal use.

APPOINTMENTS

The first woman to become a full professor in the CSCSB Psychology Department has been named to head it next year. Dr. Gloria Cowan, a member of the faculty since 1973, has been appointed Chair, Dept. of Psychology.

Dr. Cowan has been particularly active in women's studies programs and coordinated two series on the psychology of women last year. Prior to coming to Cal State she taught at Wayne State U for seven years and at Spelman College for one year. She earned her B.A. at the University of Pennsylvania and her M.S. and Ph.D. degrees at Rutgers. Her areas of specialization in teaching include social psychology, developmental personality and women's studies.

Sympathy

The College extends sympathy to Doyle Stansel (Placement and Financial Aid) upon the death of his father, Edwin N. Stansel, on February 10, in Ft. Worth, Texas, of a heart attack. The elder Mr. Stansel, 73, divided his time between homes in Ft. Worth and Lake Arrowhead.

HOLMES, HOUDINI
MEET IN MYSTERY
SUSPENSE PLAY

A brisk sale of tickets continues for "The Houdini Deception," billed for opening night-world premiere on March 2.

In addition to being a student-playwright creation of Paul DeMeo and Danny Bilson, Director William Slout states that it is also uniquely a student-production in that students have been appointed to perform major design assignments for sets, costuming and lights. Allen Evenson, Laurel Harvey and Lucy Chaille are assistant designers to the professional Theatre Arts staff.

Among a variety of locations, the sets take the audience in 1908 in London from Baker Street to the Hippodrome Theatre, both on-stage and backstage, and create a background for the mystery - a Sherlock Holmes adventure of the old school with a new twist in the form of Harry Houdini.

Play dates continue on March 3-4 and 7-11. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. in the Theatre of the Creative Arts Building.

Call Theatre Arts Department, 7452 for reservations. Tickets are $2.50 for general admission and $1.50 for students and senior citizens with I.D.
